Routt County Sheriff Gary Wall was cited on suspicion of driving under the influence Saturday night.

Wall was stopped by a Colorado State Patrol trooper er while returning from the Steamboat Springs Chamber Resort Association's 100th anniversary celebration at Sidney Peak Ranch. A news release from the Sheriff's Office indicated Wall was pulled over at about 10:15 p.m. Saturday.

Wall said he was stopped because he didn't dim his headlights. He said he was not intoxicated or impaired.

"I did not consume anything that would have affected my ability to drive," Wall said Sunday when reached on his cell phone.

After issuing Wall a court summons, the unidentified State Patrol trooper allowed Wall to leave with a sober driver, who also was not identified.

A Steamboat Springs-based Colorado State Patrol trooper and a Craig dispatcher refused to comment about the case Sunday evening, referring questions to Capt. Brett
