day period.

Friday was the deadline for candidates in the Nov. 6 election to report a second round of campaign contributions and expenditures to Steamboat Springs City Clerk Julie Jordan. Friday's report covers financial action from Oct. 12 to 28. Anderson, an incumbent City Council member, reported $7,945 in contributions, bringing his campaign total to $12,315. Hermacinski, a member of the Steamboat Springs Planning Commission, raised $4,750 in contributions reported Friday, bringing her total to $10,100.

The reports show a boost in funding for Anderson, who trailed Hermacinski by about $1,000 in an initial reporting period that included contributions through Oct. 11.

Hermacinski reported $5,350 in that period, while Anderson
