STEAMBOAT SPRINGS

Routt County Sheriff Gary Wall has lost his driver's license for one year, the Colorado Department of Revenue confirmed Thursday.

Wall had a telephone hearing with the Department of Revenue on Wednesday to consider his appeal of a revocation handed down by the Colorado State Patrol after Wall refused to take a Breathalyzer test Oct. 27 when Trooper Brett Hilling cited him for driving under the influence near U.S. Highway 40 and Walton Creek Road.

Department of Revenue hearing officer Art Julian heard the case, which will have no official bearing on a criminal trial, but may be referenced by prosecutors.

"(Wall) states that he refused because he believed the troopers did not have probably cause to require the test,"

Julian wrote in his decision and order. "I have found that the troopers did have probable cause to require testing. The revocation ... is sustained."

Julian wrote that he reached his conclusion by a preponderance of the evidence, which
