Bank officials expressed shock and disappointment Monday in response to an alleged $1.2 million embezzlement from five bank account holders in Steamboat Springs.

If the arrests last week of Pamela Jean Williams and Terri Dawn Moody Fatka rocked Routt County, they also put officials at Alpine Bank, the pair's former employer, and Bank of the West, their current one, back on their heels.

"I think there's disappointment in being betrayed by colleagues," said Glenn Davis, Alpine Bank's regional president for Eagle and Routt counties.

Williams and Fatka, both 41, were arrested Thursday on suspicion of embezzling $1.2 million from Alpine Bank account holders during the past 2 1/2 years, a theft police say is the largest in recent memory. The two were arrested at the Steamboat branch of Bank of the West, where they began working as tellers in January.

Williams and Fatka were charged with two counts each of theft of more than $20,000,
