STEAMBOAT SPRINGS

The murder trial of Luz Cisneros will take place in Routt County after District Court Judge Michael O'Hara denied a change-of-venue request made by the defense. Jury selection is expected to conclude today.

Cisneros

More than 100 Routt County residents were called to be potential jurors, and O'Hara spent most of Monday asking potential jurors a series of questions about their ability to treat the case fairly and without bias.

Despite the hours of questions, jury selection will continue today as defense and prosecution attorneys take turns evaluating the juror pool. About 80 candidates remained after Monday's exclusions, and O'Hara said he hopes the selection process will be finished by noon today.

Cisneros is accused of killing her infant daughter Sept. 6, 2007, in her Steamboat Springs apartment. O'Hara said he expects the trial to last seven days.

Public defender Sheryl Uhlmann filed a motion for change of venue on Cisneros'
